

The Enchiridion of Augustine: Addressed to Laurentius; Being a Treatise on Faith, Hope, and Love (Classic Reprint)

Argument part of the work (chap, cxiv.-cxvi.) treats of the objects of hope, and consists of a very brief exposition of the several petitions in the Lords Prayer. The third and concluding part (chap, cxvii.-cxxxii.) treats of the objects of love, showing the pre-eminence of this grace in the gospel system, that it is the end of the commandment and the fulfilling of the law, and that God Himself is love.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
